Saturday, October 23, 1937, was Home Coming Day at Indiana. The Executive Council meeting in the morning was attended by forty representatives who brought reports from twenty-three organized units. Seven additional units responded to roll call by letter. Homecoming Alumni and their friends filled recreation hall and the gymnasium at the dance which followed dinner in the evening.

Alumni Day on May 21, 1938, brought many back to the College for reunions. The annual business meeting of the Alumni Association was held in Chapel Hall at ten o'clock. Informal and interesting reports were given by representatives of the reunion classes of 1888, 1898, 1908, 1913, 1918 and 1928, as they were recognized and welcomed by the president.

The oldest class represented was that of 1878, by a letter of greetings from Mr. J. M. Berkey, Pittsburgh. The youngest, the class of 1938, were inducted into the Association during the meeting.

The luncheon which followed was delightful and was enlivened by the cheers and songs of the reunion classes, the most enthusiastic being the fifty year class.

The luncheon program was as follows:

Adelaide Ramsay Clarke, Presiding	1912
President of the General Alumni Association
Selden M. Ely	1888
Duet: "Every Flower" from "Madame Butterfly" Puccinni

The Alumni are grateful to Dr. and Mrs. Fausold, the Faculty and all those who so graciously entertained them and their families during Commencement Week.

Ground Breaking Ceremony

On Tuesday morning, March 8th, 1938, an impressive ceremony was carried out in connection with the inauguration of the $736,000 building program at Indiana State Teachers' College.

The program opened in the College gymnasium with Dr. Fausold presiding. Following the invocation by Rev. R. B. Hurt, short addresses of greeting were made by these representatives: for the College—Thomas H. Sheeche, President of the Board of Trustees; the Students—Virginia Cassell, President of Student Council; the Alumni—Mrs. Adelaide Ramsay Clarke, President of the General Alumni Association; for the Community—Bert H. Lichteberger, Burgess of Indiana; for the General State Authority—J. B. Kelly; for the Department of Public Instruction—Dr. Donald P. Davis; the Architect—D. W. Gale, and the Contractor—Jos. J. Bendik.

Music by the Symphonic Choir, directed by Van A. Christy, preceded and followed the speakers.

The Assembly then moved to the West Campus and on the site of the new auditorium Dr. Fausold and each of the representatives turned a shovelful of earth. The ceremonies ended with the Alma Mater by the College Band directed by Lawrence C. Stitt.

Dr. Fausold in the remarks below, gives a short summary of the building plans:

Today is a red letter day in the history of this college. Two buildings are about to be erected which will fill a long felt need on this campus. A modern auditorium has long been needed. The dreams of many are about to be fulfilled. The auditorium with a seating capacity of 1600 people will be modern in every respect. It should be a material aid in maintaining college unity and in presenting the finest contributions to the student body. Not only will it be a place for students to listen, but also one where they can exercise their own forensic and musical abilities.

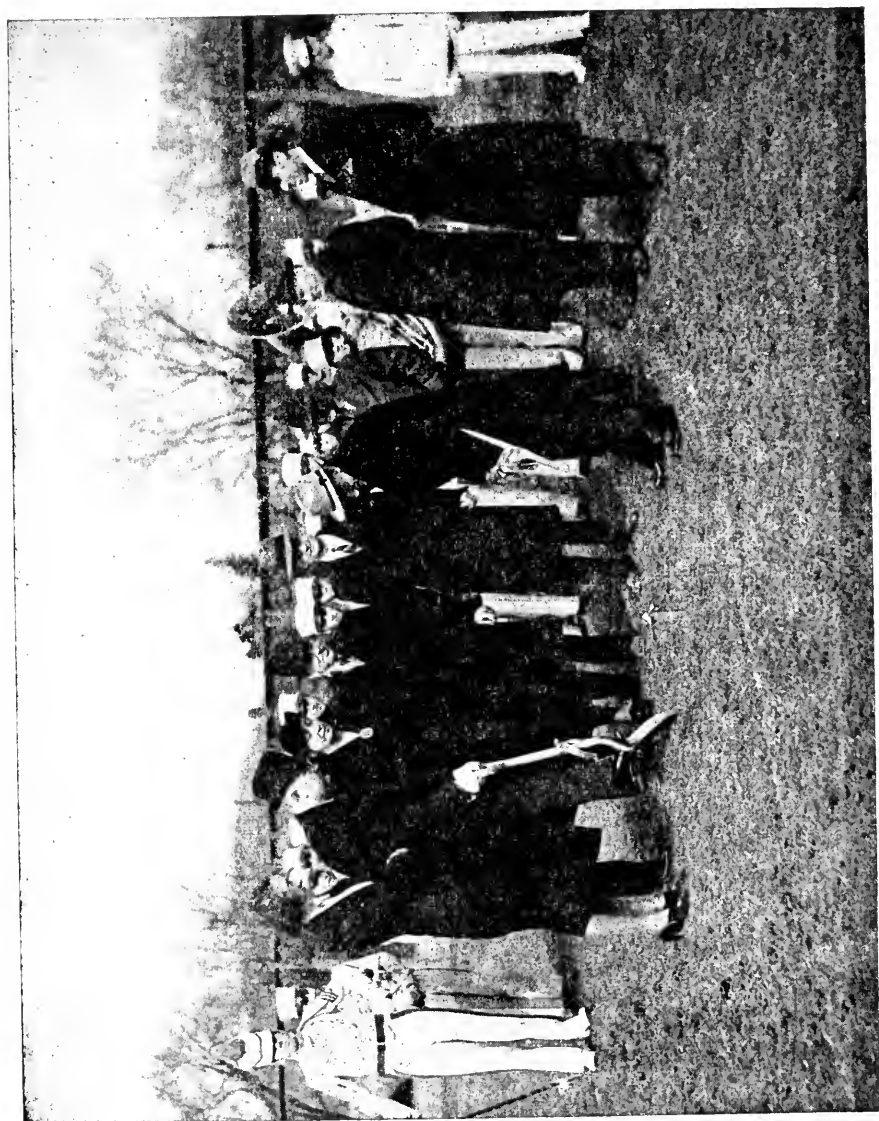

The new laboratory school will provide for a modern program of education from the kindergarten through the junior high school. One of the unique features of this building is the demonstration room with a seating capacity for 120 observers. It is doubtful whether any laboratory school building in America will surpass the one to be erected here for the specific purposes for which it is planned.

The new entrance to the dining room with two ample lobbies and the renovation of the music department rooms should mean much for the comfort of the student body.

The new buildings have been planned with definite and specific objectives in mind. I am confident that these objectives will be met and that this college is about to take long strides forward.

NEW BUILDING PROGRAM

A new allocation of $500,000 has been made to this College for additional new buildings. It is the intention of the Administration that this money be expended for a new Fine Arts Building to be erected as a wing of the new Auditorium. The rest of the fund will be expended for a men's dormitory to be located on the north side of the new athletic field along Grant Street.

Alumni News

J. M. Berkey, 440 South Atlantic Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa., writes:
Dear Friends:

I am forwarding to you the announcement of the death of James E. Andrews of the class of 1878.

There are now only two members of the '78 Class living—Robert J. St. Clair of St. Joseph, Missouri, and the writer, both of us Octogenarians.

This would be our 60th Anniversary of our graduation, but I presume we cannot have any "Class Reunion." Ours was one of the pioneer classes of the earlier days. But the happy memories of the by-gone days are still ours to cherish and our good wishes for the continued success of the present Normal College go out to all who continue to serve in its larger field of worth and service.

Sarah Gallaher attended the Alumni Reunion this year with the class of '88. She completed the elementary course in 1884 and the scientific in 1888.

1885

It was with keen regret that we learned at Homecoming in October that our "Mac" Gordon would not be present because of doctor's orders; and we learned with sincere sorrow of his death from a heart attack December twenty-third. Mr. Gordon became Professor of Mathematics at Indiana in 1892 and held this position until his resignation in 1927. He is survived by his wife Emma Reinhardt Gordon, 1907, and his daughter Mrs. David Blair, of Indiana.

Laura C. Cochrane in her will, bequeathed the sum of fifty dollars to the Jane E. Leonard Student Loan Fund.

Mrs. S. W. Pringle, nee Margaret E. Purdy, died in August, 1938.

REUNION CLASS OF 1888

The re-unioning group creating special interest during commencement week at the Indiana State Teacher's College was that of the Class of 1888—the Half Century group.

Of a class of sixty-two, twelve returned, and the joy of successfully completing the course at I. S. N. S. fifty years ago could scarcely have been greater than the glorious reunion, filled with reminiscences, of those who were privileged to meet again at the now "Indiana State Teacher's College."

Some of us had not seen each other for twenty-five years, others for nearly fifty years and with so little personal change that we felt time had surely been good to us.

Our group attended and enjoyed every session of the commencement program, and while we deeply regretted the fact that more of our class could not be with us in person, we thoroughly enjoyed reading their letters assuring us that they were with us in spirit.

The following letters were received:

Frank Gibson, 301 N. Fifth Avenue, Durant, Okla.; W. C. Ramaley, Yakima, Wash.; Jessie Evans, (Mrs. Wyckoff) 209 N. Del Mar Avenue, San Gabriel, Cal.; Margaret Swartwood, (Mrs. Ross T. Campbell) 112 Center Avenue, McDonald, Pa.; Ivy C. Cluley, 617 S. Westmoreland Avenue, Los Angeles, Cal.; Mary Agnes Swan, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Sophia Rose (Mrs. H. F. Carr) 878 Thorn Street, Sewickley, Pa.; Lillian Myers, 127 4th Avenue, N. E. St. Petersburg, Fla.; Margery (Madge) Gilmore, 4015 Northminster Street, N. S., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Those who were present to enjoy the reunion were:

Selden M. Ely, 2918 Courtland Place, N. W. Washington, D. C., President of the Class, who was invited to represent the re-unioning groups at the Alumni luncheon on Saturday, May 21st. Mr. Ely is at present a Director in the Southeastern Industrial Bankers and Affiliates; Hon. J. T. Stewart, Indiana, Pa., who was our Cheer Leader at the luncheon, Mr. Stewart is a member of the House of Representatives; Mary Jane Cooper, 134 Montour Avenue, Johnstown, Pa., was the life of our group; Mary J. Caulfield, Enon Valley, Pa., retired; Flora M. Vanard, (Mrs. D. W. Kiester) 947 Albon Road, Cleveland Heights, Ohio, author of six primary supplementary readers, ready for publication; Nancy J. Hine, Saltsburg, Pa., retired; Virginia E. Walker, (Mrs. C. A. E. Codman) 4116 Spruce Street, Philadelphia, Pa.; Ella McKee, (Mrs. Samuel Conant), Thonotosassa, Fla., planter and importer of oranges, grapefruit and lemons; Anna Grassel, (Mrs. W. J. Conway) 444 Waugh Avenue, New Wilmington, Pa.; Belle Simpson, Indiana, Pa.; Emma Jane Herriott, 227 S. Lincoln Street, New Wilmington, Pa.; Elisabeth Harrison (Mrs. W. E. Newlin), recently elected to serve a third term of six years on the McKeesport Board of Education; Hon. Sarah M. Gallaher of the Scientific Class of '88, was also present.

One of the most interesting events of our group was gathering around the "Rock Of Ages," which we had placed on the campus fifty years ago, and having a group picture taken, after which Hon. and Mrs. J. T. Stewart entertained us in their lovely home.

We enjoyed every minute of our short stay in Indiana. We were happy to have been there and we departed with loyalty in our hearts for Indiana State Teacher's College, and a sincere hope for her continued splendid reputation.

Mrs. Elisabeth Harrison Newlin.

Mrs. C. L. Smith (Della Chester) lives at 1092 E. 3rd St., Salem, Ohio. She is spending the summer in Canada. Her son, by the way, is Chester L. Smith, Sports Editor of the Pittsburgh Press, writing as "The Village Smithy."

Dr. George W. Barnett, practicing physician in Johnstown for twenty-eight years, died Friday, December 15, 1937. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Anna Strauss Barnett, and two daughters, Margaretta and Fredricka, the last a student at Indiana State Teachers College.

Anna Hazlett is spending the summer at her Chautauqua, N. Y., cottage.

Douglass Corrigan, who flew the Atlantic this summer in a make-shift plane, is the son of the late Mrs. Clyde Corrigan. She was a former Ford City school teacher, and was Evelyn Gross Nelson of the Class of 1892, Indiana State Normal.

1893

Hope Stewart, of the Class of 1893, served as a critic teacher in the Indiana State Normal Model School from 1899 until 1920, at which time she became Dean of Women, holding that position until her retirement this summer. She is living in Indiana.

1894

Maude Woods, for many years a teacher in McKeesport High School, died August 10, 1938.

1896

Mrs. Nancy Portser Archibald lives in Wilkinsburg and has attended several Alumni activities in the Pittsburgh district the past year.

1897

Mrs. Frances Hazlett McConnell spent some time in Florida the past winter.

REUNION CLASS OF 1898

Very little effort had been made at this time to gather the members of the forty-year class back to their Alma Mater, but the twelve of us who were loyal enough to return, felt amply repaid with pleasant experiences.

It was a very happy occasion to greet old friends, to meet and make new acquaintances and to enjoy the wonderful improvements which have so beautified the "homey" spots of 1898.

Although our crowd was small, it lacked no enthusiasm with jolly Margaret Plender in our midst. She grows younger and handsomer. Eula Hill, of New Kensington, and Estelle Luty, of Avalon, are still in their teens in youthful appearance. Jessie Cochran McCorkle and husband drove from Kernersville, N. C., to greet old friends.

Carrie Kline Duncan resides in Indiana and has two daughters and one son. Elizabeth Miller Crissman accompanied by Mr. Crissman came over from Hollidaysburg.

L. B. Mitchell, a business man of Ridley Park, Pa., and Mrs. Mitchell attended the Alumni Luncheon. Edward Welsh and Mrs. Welsh (Jennie Miller), of Vandergrift, returned to show us how very happy (though married) a "Normal Case" can really look after forty years of wedded bliss. They have two married daughters.

Mae Burkett, of McKees Rocks, is still the demure little miss. Anna Evans, who is interested in banking circles, resides at 2311 Jenny Lind St., McKeesport.

Martha Mateer Whitehead resides in Vandergrift and has one son.

Many of those unable to be with us sent greetings and news of others.

Clara Smith Staib is a typical business woman with a large St. Louis corporation. Mary Lindeman, of Kittanning, is still teaching but says her pupils grow dumber every year.

Enid Woolsey, of Pittsburgh, enjoys travel during vacations and has the reputation of being a Coast to Coast Commuter. Lenore Hamilton Carnahan resides with a sister and an aged uncle in Butler and has only one son.

Rena Beatty Suter, of Warren, Pa., has a family of musicians. One son is a music instructor in Jamestown, N. Y., another son is located in Washington, D. C., and a daughter in Oberlin College. Hilda Rieck Bovard resides with a son in the Bellefield Apartments, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Erma Cunningham still claims Philadelphia St., Indiana, as home. Gertrude Joseph Hirsch, of New York City, has one married daughter and a son, an attorney.

Alice Roeth Horner lives at 5011 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa. Mary Crombie Garrett resides in Serverna Park, Maryland. Her husband is a Baltimore banker and a son is a junior at Amherst. She drives her car daily to and from Baltimore and annually to and from Florida.

Margaret Tucker Knowlton lives at 883 Mahoning Ave., Youngstown, Ohio.

Margaret Grant Clarke lives in Connellsville and is a "stay at home" because she is a druggist's wife. Martha Mateer Whitehead.

Birdie Craig sent her regrets to the All-Alumni Party stating she had a previous engagement with the '99 "Dutch Club" composed of members of the class of '99 and organized at the home of Violet Hirth Powell, Otto, Pa., July, 1909. The aim was chiefly for sociability, to meet and have luncheon twice a year in some convenient place with the object of keeping in touch with each other and our Alma Mater. Throughout the years this group has been the nucleus of our very successful five year reunions.

William E. Keener with Mrs. Keener attended the Alumni Day Reunion on May 21st. We were sorry to learn of his death three weeks later on June 11th. He was always interested in the Alumni Association and a member of the Pittsburgh Unit.

Agnes Douds Bulford, past President of the Alumni Association (1935-37), continues to be active in Alumni work. The past year she was a member of the Council of the North Side-North Boroughs, Pittsburgh Unit, and will act as one of their representatives to the General Alumni Executive Council next year. She is keenly interested in the Indiana Club; a charter member of the Congress of Womens Clubs, serving on that group's Loan Committee; a member of the Board of Pittsburgh Dairy Council; and a life member of the Allegheny County Council of Parent Teachers Association. She has been elected to serve as President of the Tourists Club for the coming year.

Mabel Brockway, a teacher in the Friendship School, Pittsburgh, the past twenty-five years, died March 7, 1938. She was a member of the Indiana Club.

Opal Berthel is principal of the Junior High School, Mount Pleasant, Pennsylvania.

Nelle Maxwell is principal of the Allison School, Wilkinsburg, and as president of the Wilkinsburg Unit the past year, made a splendid comeback for that Unit.

Anna Barr Pinkerton has been active in the North Side-North Boroughs Pittsburgh Unit. She gave up her reunion to mother her sister Mildred's family, so that Mildred might attend her reunion of 1918 class.

1904

Mary Wyman in the Commercial Department of Perry High, Pittsburgh, is one of the most loyal of Indiana's Alumni. She is active in the North Side-North Boroughs, Pittsburgh Unit.

1905

Isabel Allison Neel is actively interested in Dormont church, club and pictures, old ones, late ones and of course, the class picture was there, and we had a most delightful afternoon together.

On Saturday night we had a real party down town. It was like playing the old game "upsetting the fruit basket" trying to have a talk with each one there.

On Sunday at noon there were 30 of us in the dining room, making three tables.

One of the high-lights of our reunion was having with us Frank Woodward and Mrs. Woodward, who are missionaries in the Phillipines at present, but for many years were in the South Sea Islands.

REUNION CLASS OF 1913

The Reunion of the Class of 1913 was a delightful occasion for all who attended and we regret that more of our class did not attend this week-end. The Alumni Meeting was called for 10:00 A.M. on Saturday and it was interesting to note the number that responded when the roll call was made by Mrs. Clarke, President of Alumni Association. The Alumni Luncheon was held in the College Dining Room and we not only enjoyed a delicious meal but a splendid program as well.

Saturday evening Louise Langham Maloney arranged for a Class Reunion Dinner held at the Indiana Country Club. We were happy to have as our guests Miss Ackerman and Miss Stewart. After dinner everyone sat around in this spacious club house, reminiscing and telling of just how life had dealt with them in the past twenty-five years.

Sunday was spent going to Baccalaureate Service and it surely was inspiring to see the Class of '38 as they passed through the College Grove. The Commencement Dinner at noon was enjoyed by all as we met again with our class and some of their families.

It was not only a pleasure to return and see how kind the years have been to all of us, but the warm feeling that we all have for one another. The hospitality of our Alma Mater is surely appreciated and for this we are grateful.

As we pass through the years of life, those cherished memories of our Indiana days should grow nearer and dearer to us at our next reunion.

A TEACHER'S PRAYER

Beginning of a New School Year

Dear God, these words I hold most dear,

After a summer of glorious rest;

A new beginning, make this year my best,

A new chance, make me a teacher children love,

A teacher who puts the standard of her school above

All personal show of gain, and strives

To give the friendly touch to these young lives

That I shall meet, the Beginning of a New School Year.
